

Even if you've waited your whole life for a place like Avenel, it was worth it.

A thousand acres of rolling green hills and wooded stream valleys that were once a Potomac horse farm. A PGA Tour-sponsored private golf club. An equestrian center. Miles of bridle and hiking paths. A 30-acre park.

And 7 of Washington's most respected homebuilders. Each determined to build the finest homes their art can create. Here in one of the most beautiful new communities in America.

At prices from just under $400,000, to over $1 million, you expect these homes to be very special. Once you've seen Avenel, you know they'll be even better.

For your preview tour, visit the Avenel Information Center on site, open 10-6 daily.

From the Beltway, take River Rd. west 1½ miles, just past Congressional Country Club to Bradley Blvd. Turn left and go 1/2 mile to Avenel entrance drive, follow straight on to information center. Or call 299-5916.
